Executive Summary:
The FY 2023 budget included funds for the purchase of a 2022 Jeep Wrangler Unlimited, Right Hand Drive (RHD) as a scheduled replacement the 2008 Jeep Wrangler RHD that has a last reported mileage of over 86,000 miles. In September 2021, three competitive quotes were received from the following dealerships: Riverfront Chrysler: $38,308 Galena Chrysler: $38,925 St. Charles Chrysler: $39,235 Riverfront's quote indicated the base price was the wholesale price. Current supply chain issues have significantly affected the manufacture of this specialty vehicle and current pricing is unavailable. Jeep has no immediate plans to produce the RHD Wrangler, and no timeframe can be given on they might open the order process. Galena Chrysler, who specializes in RHD vehicles, was the only dealership to offer the option to buy an order that was canceled by another customer with similar options. The price of the vehicle with options is $47,352. The total cost for the purchase and associated equipment and installation (from third party vendors) is $55,811.46.
